Summary

Size: 1 scrapbook

Geographic locations: Mainly New Orleans, Louisiana; also Evanston and Champagne, Illinois, and Hammond, Louisiana.

Inclusive dates: February 19-27, 1903

Summary: A 29-page scrapbook/diary containing photographs and ephemera collected by an Evanston, Illinois group during a visit by train to the New Orleans Carnival of 1903. The New Orleans section includes brief references to Bequè Restaurant, Fabacher's Restaurant, Christ Church, Metairie Cemetery, St. Roch Cemetery, Tulane University, French Opera, U.S. Mint, Young Men's Gymnastic Club, U.S. and French battleships in port, Royal Street, French Market, Rex and Proteus parades. While the scrapbook has no single author, several of the entries are signed by individuals within the group. Two of the more prominent among these were an Irving Telling and Willie Grandon; thus the title, Telling - Grandon.
